

A tale of two cities.

What you need to start a new colony...

Sydney: Plans for the first fleet

London: John Newton and the Eclectic Society

Sydney: The heavy demands of a chaplain..

- Uphold morality
- Be a 'proper churchman'
- Preach the gospel.

London: Marsden prepares

Sydney: Marsden and the mission to Australasia.

Lessons from the chaplains:

- Desire for gospel growth
- Generosity
- Concern for the outsiders

Warnings

- They were products of the times they lived in.
