Favourite verses

Romans 8:1, “There is no condemnation for those that are in Christ Jesus”

Roman 8:18, “I consider our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us”

Verse 22, “We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of child birth right up to the present time”

Verse 26, “in the same way the Spirit helps us in our weakness”

Verse 28, “we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him”

Verse 31, “If God is for us who can be against us”

Verse 37, “In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us”

Verse 38-39, “for I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord”

Where have we been?

Suffering in perspective

Why do bad things happen to people of such incredible status, connections and future heritage?

Verse 18 – “I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us”.

Our hope is not here on earth

Verse 23, we look forward

Rom 8:28, “And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purposes”

Confident assurance

“No, in all things we are more than conquers through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord”

Verse 35. “Who shall separate us from the love of God?”

A misuse of this passage.
