

Matthew 19:1-20:34 – Why will the first will be last?*When your understanding is challenged

Firstly, the authority of Jesus clearly on display.

Secondly, ... their understand of godly living completely upside down.

Who is it who gets Godly living right? Jesus or the experts in the law?

Divorce

Deut 24:1

“martial unfaithfulness” or “for any and every reason”.

Jesus’ reply ...

... God’s original intention

... how sinfulness had impacted marriage.

... exposes their misquote

... corrected their wrong understanding of Deut 24:1

Challenging their understanding of singleness

Children

Matthew 19:13-15 ... children in the kingdom of God.

Being Rich

“What must I do to get eternal life?”

“go sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come follow me”.

The Generous boss

Mat 20:15 ... generosity of the owner

A different sort of messiah

Greatness is about serving

23 - Matthew 19:1-20:34 – Why will the first will be last?

.... two blokes who are blind who seem to see more clearly who Jesus is than everyone else.

For us today

Firstly, does your listening to Jesus actually change what you believe about kingdom living?

Secondly does your listening to Jesus actually change what you do?
